3. Read Government Proceedings No. 2101-12—L. Read also Resolution No. XII of the Board's Proceedings dated 19th August last.

Resolution.—Resolved that the matter was not placed before Government in its true light, that members of Local Boards cannot possibly be expected to prepare estimates and plans, take measurements, keep accounts and submit periodical returns, that some Taluks are unrepresented in the Board, that the already overworked and undermanned Taluk establishment cannot get through the work without an additional hand and consequently the employment of Work Inspectors is necessary and that the matter should be respectfully submitted to Government for re-consideration.

8. Opening out a road to connect Nuggihalli with Sravanabelagola viâ Kempinkote Gold Mines.

The President explained to the Board that the opening of the road would be a great convenience to the public. The Tiptur Railway Station is much nearer to these parts than Arsikere. It will help the mining enterprize at Kempinkote and will shorten the journey of visitors to Sravanabelagola by ten miles or more.

Resolution.—Resolved that the estimates be sanctioned and that the contribution of Rs. 250 offered by Mr. Kesavaiengar, Amildar, towards the cost of these works be accepted with thanks, but without the condition as to future maintenance.
